DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 1, 6, 8-10, 13 and 21-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).
3. Claims 2-5, 7, 11-12, and 14-20 are rejected as they are dependent on previously rejected independent claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
  - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.
5. Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Knowledge Probe (<http://www.recruiter.ca>).

Art Unit: 3629

6. As per independent Claims 1, 8-10, and 21-22, Wiens discloses a service provider node (method for resume storage and retrieval from multiple warehouses, a computer program product) comprising: a client program for accessing web, gopher and other Internet sites that allows users to read documents and navigate between the documents stored in a plurality (at least one) of resume warehouses; a communication link with the plurality (at least one) of resume warehouses; a communication link with at least one client; an application for parsing job applicant data from the plurality of resume warehouses; and an application for collecting the parsed resume data and storing the parsed resume data in a database, comprising means for tracking the parsed resume data stored in the database (Resume Detective Application).
(www.recruiter.ca, www.recruiter.ca/detective/nj.html, www.recruiter.ca/recruiter/iris.html, www.recruiter.ca/recruiter/r4w.html)
7. Knowledge Probe fails to expressly disclose one application that will parse the resume data and place the parsed resume data into a template with at least one job applicant field.
8. However, Knowledge probe does teach the use of two applications (Resume Detective and IRIS) to parse the resume data and place the parsed resume data into a template with at least one job applicant field (www.recruiter.ca, www.recruiter.ca/detective/nj.html, www.recruiter.ca/recruiter/iris.html).
9. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have included one application for parsing the resume data and placing the parsed resume data into a template with at least one job applicant field in the system disclosed by Knowledge Probe, because it would simply be a matter of combining the two applications made by the same manufacturer – which are already made to seamlessly work together.

10. Knowledge probe also fails to expressly disclose utilizing the parsed resume data for increasing tracking efficiency.
11. However, Knowledge Probe does disclose tracking the source of the parsed resume data through the resume detective application (www.recruiter.ca/detective/nj.html), and the use of such tracked data does not hold any patentable weight, as a claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.
12. As per Claim 2, Knowledge Probe discloses wherein the client program is a proprietary browser (www.recruiter.ca, www.recruiter.ca/detective/nj.html, www.recruiter.ca/recruiter/iris.html).
13. As per Claim 3, Knowledge Probe discloses wherein the database is local to the service provider (Wiens: Abstract, C6 L26-67, C7 L1-46, C9 L33-62, C10 L10-25, Fig.1-2, Fig.12).
14. As per Claims 4 and 11, Knowledge Probe discloses wherein the resume data in the database is used to generate form letters (Recruiter for Windows Application) (www.recruiter.ca, www.recruiter.ca/detective/nj.html, www.recruiter.ca/recruiter/iris.html, www.recruiter.ca/recruiter/r4w.html).
15. As per Claims 5 and 12, Knowledge Probe discloses an application for tracking source information of the job applicant data (Resume Detective Application) (www.recruiter.ca, www.recruiter.ca/detective/nj.html, www.recruiter.ca/recruiter/iris.html).

16. As per Claims 6 and 13, Knowledge Probe fails to expressly disclose wherein the application for tracking source information is used to track a headhunter's efficiencies; however, as explained for independent claims 1, 8-10, and 21-22, Knowledge Probe does disclose tracking the source of the parsed resume data through the resume detective application (www.recruiter.ca/detective/nj.html), and the use of such tracked data does not hold any patentable weight, as a claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.
17. As per Claims 7 and 20, Knowledge Probe discloses wherein the form letters are communications with the job applicant (Recruiter for Windows Application) (www.recruiter.ca, www.recruiter.ca/detective/nj.html, www.recruiter.ca/recruiter/iris.html, www.recruiter.ca/recruiter/r4w.html).
18. As per Claims 14 and 15, Knowledge Probe discloses determining if job applicant data has already been stored in the system to avoid parsing duplicate job applicant data (Resume Detective Application) (www.recruiter.ca, www.recruiter.ca/detective/nj.html, www.recruiter.ca/recruiter/iris.html).
19. As per Claims 16 and 17, Knowledge Probe discloses wherein cost-related information related to recruiting of job applicants is tracked (Recruiter for Windows Application) (www.recruiter.ca, www.recruiter.ca/detective/nj.html, www.recruiter.ca/recruiter/iris.html, www.recruiter.ca/recruiter/r4w.html).
20. As per Claims 18 and 19, Knowledge Probe discloses wherein the parsed resume data is searched a manipulated to track job applicant fields contained in the template (IRIS

Art Unit: 3629

Application) (www.recruiter.ca, www.recruiter.ca/detective/nj.html, www.recruiter.ca/recruiter/iris.html).
